

Ronnie Bell Bio

Ronnie Bell is a licensed and certified Locksmith at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He has been employed with UNCC since 1992. With approximately 24 years in the UNCC system, he has served as a member of the Staff Council representing the Physical Plant for the past 12 years. During his reign as a staff council member, he has become widely respected as a person of integrity and one who cares about the concerns of his fellow co-workers.

Several times in 2015, Ronnie represented UNCC as an alternate for the Staff Assembly delegate and this interaction had such a huge impact on him, that he decided to run for this office.

While at UNCC, he received the Employee of the Year Award in 2014. He was previously named as employee of the Quarter at UNCC. In the Community he has served as Vice-President of the Belmont Community Neighborhood Association.

Ronnie was born in Waynesboro, Georgia on July 1, 1958. He graduated from Waynesboro High School and from the Augusta Technical Institute in Augusta, Georgia. After receiving his certifications in Carpentry and Contracting, he studied locksmith and became certified and licensed in this field also.

He is an ordained minister and has been the Pastor of the Carolina Deliverance Evangelistic Church in Kannapolis, North Carolina for 9 years. Before moving to Kannapolis, he pastored a congregation in Charlotte, North Carolina for 14 years.

He has a commitment to God, family and work. He has been married for over 36 years to Sharon Bell. He is the proud father of 3 girls, Rosanna, Sonya and Sharhonda. Added to their family has been 2 sons-in-law. They also have a grandson and are expecting a grand-daughter in September, 2016.
